

To whom it may concern: I am communicating in regard to the FCC's upcoming review of the cross-ownership ban in cities. I oppose any attempts in this direction and would encourage the FCC to move in the opposite direction, forcing media conglomerates to divest themselves of these various holdings. The metropolitan community that I live in (Milwaukee,WI) has such a conglomerate (The Journal Co.) that was "grandfathered in", and it has only become larger,blander, and advertising
